INTRODUCTIONS
Ms. Johnson introduced Mr. Kuhn, general manager of the Colorado River Water Conservation District.
Ms. Roman noted that the other presenter, Mr. Bushong, was en route.

COLORADO RIVER BASIN HYDROLOGY, DEMAND AND PLANNING
Mr. Kuhn presented information to the boards regarding the Colorado River Basin watershed; the various compacts by which it is governed; its’ changing hydrology; demand on its supply; and planning efforts to balance reservoir operations, reduce demand, and minimize risk. A copy of the presentation and a related memo are attached hereto as Exhibits A and B, respectively, and incorporated herein by this reference.

Questions and discussion ensued, including a summary of the structural deficit, which refers to declining levels in Lake Mead due to outflow for lower basin uses exceeding inflow from Lake Powell and intermediary streams.

WATER QUALITY MATTERS UPDATE
Ms. Brooks introduced Mr. Bushong, who works on many District and Authority water quality matters. A related memo is attached hereto as Exhibit C and incorporated herein by this reference.

Regulations 31 and 61 Rulemaking Hearing – Mr. Bushong discussed water quality rulemaking hearings; he highlighted the importance of commenting on and influencing standards that don’t reflect real-time conditions in the District and Authority service areas. Both entities have successfully achieved site-specific standards for certain stream segments for which the streams would otherwise be out of compliance and added to the 303(d) list of impaired streams. Mr. Bushong stressed the importance of data collection and monitoring to support these site-specific standards.

Eagle Mine Update – Mr. Bushong discussed the Eagle Mine superfund site, as well as the District and Authority’s ongoing efforts to maintain standards on the Eagle River that are protective of water quality. Mr. Bushong noted various solutions to improve water quality and treatment at the mine itself, which would benefit the District and Authority as downstream water providers.

Climax Mine Update – Mr. Bushong discussed the Climax Mine, and its effects on Eagle Park Reservoir. Operations began again in 2012, at which time monitoring in and around the reservoir became more frequent and stringent. The District and Authority continuously work to ensure reservoir water quality remains high.

A copy of Mr. Bushong’s presentation is attached hereto as Exhibit D and incorporated herein by this reference.
ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business to come before the Boards, the meeting adjourned at 12:25 p.m.
